Detling Players support the St Martins World War 1 memorial

Detling Players will be performing a collection of songs and short readings based on period works as part of the Church's weekend of events to commemorate the end of the first World War at 11.00am on November 10th.

The Players performed a similar production in 2015, and so this will be something of a re-prise, with extracts, from a very successful show with many of the original cast..

Come along remember the fallen, and sing along with the cast in some of the famous World War One songs.

Yes Prime Minister

Detling Village Hall, November 15-17 with a matinee on the 17th at 2.30

Our November production is the very successful West End Show that followed the hilarious Yes Minister television series.

Sue Sutton directs a local cast who are enjoying playing senior politicians and civil servants who passively aggressively fight each other over some important and some very unimportant issues. Although written 20 years ago, many of the ideas are worryingly current: Europe, democracy, populism...you name it the relevance today is real...
CHG0049148 course it is very funny indeed.

Tickets @ £10 in advance £12 on the door, Concessions £10 matinee only

Box Office 07842 169725 or www.detlingplayers.co.uk

As you can see rehearsals are in full swing..!

Calling all budding Directors...!

We are looking for ideas for the next production in April 2019 and also if anyone budding directors are interested in directing the next play.

Any suggestions for the next production and also volunteers for directing would be very useful

“Save the Date”

Detling Players present an Oscar Wilde Evening on March 9th led by local playwright and actor Paul Doust. More details in the next edition of Prompt.
