

The Newsletter of the Detling Players
March 2017

PROMPT

Next event: A private screening of Noel Coward's "Private Lives"

Hopefully you will have already made a note in your diaries that on Wednesday 8th March there will be a private screening of the film Private Lives, starring Anna Chancellor and Toby Stephens. It will be in the School Hall as usual, at 7.30 pm.

Remember you don't have to belong to the Detling Players to join in the fun, so feel free to bring friends. Refreshments will be served.

KING LEAR

Rehearsals are going well for our next production, and we are blessed with a strong cast and a director with vision. It will be a modern dress production, using a thrust stage and promises to be gripping stuff. It is never too early to start the process of publicising the play, so please tell all your friends and don't miss an opportunity to let anyone who is interested in drama know that the Detling Players are, as usual, about to put on an unmissable show.

See the press release and poster on the next pages

"I AM A MAN MORE SINNED AGAINST THAN SINNING"

Detling Players present

KING LEAR

By William Shakespeare

BOX OFFICE

07842 169725

DETLING VILLAGE HALL

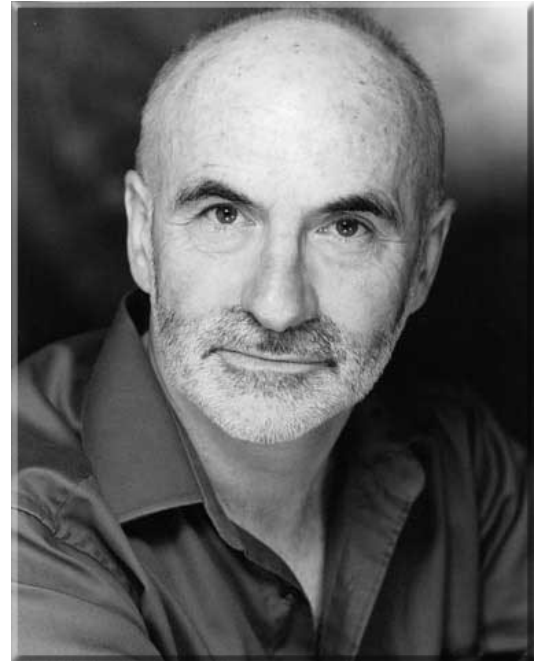

APRIL 27th 28th & 29th at 7.30 and 29th at 2.30

www.detlingplayers.co.uk

Press Release

Detling Players present a modern King Lear in April

The award winning Detling Players company are taking on another ambitious challenge by choosing to perform King Lear in the Detling Village Hall in April.

Although it was written in 1603 by Shakespeare, King Lear is incredibly relevant today. As a result the Players will be performing in modern dress, and the topical themes of Brexit, old age, dementia and inequality will be central to their interpretation.

King Lear is one of the most challenging parts an actor can perform and the Players are very lucky that David Vale, an ex member and a professional actor has agreed to take the role.

The production will be on April 27th at 7.30 with reduced ticket prices for students, Friday the 28th and two performance on the 29th at 2.30 and 7.30.

For tickets call the Box Office on 07842 169725.

For more information call Richard Finn on 07802 316891