

‘Travesties’ picks up seven nominations in KDA Awards

I am delighted to advise that our recent production of “Travesties” by Tom Stoppard was nominated for the following awards in the Kent Drama Association Festival:

Best Actor - Stephen Oliver
Best Actress in a Supporting Role - Angela Clark
Best Lighting
Best Sound
Best Wardrobe Achievement
Best Young Player - Megan Vernon
Initiative in stage presentation

This was not an easy play to put on, but the nominations show that this was a great team effort by all concerned!

NEXT PRODUCTION: ALAN AYCKBOURN'S “A CHORUS OF DISAPPROVAL”

Our November production is being discussed and it does rather look like we will be putting on this well-known comedy. We are looking for actors and possibly a Director, perhaps someone looking to work outside their normal ambit and with an experienced and reputable drama group (that's us, by the way!)

If you wish to be considered for a role in this production, or to put yourself forward as a potential director, please email the chairman at this address as soon as possible:

And then we can invite you to the Auditions as soon as we have agreed a date
